NOTIFICATIONS

Fort St. George, November 4, 1908.

His Majesty the King-Emperor's Message to the Princes and Peoples of India.

No. 622.—It is now fifty years since Queen Victoria, my Beloved Mother, and my August Predecessor on the Throne of these Realms, for divers weighty reasons, with the advice and consent of Parliament, took upon herself the government of the territories theretofore administered by the East India Company. I deem this a fitting anniversary on which to greet the Princes and peoples of India, in commemoration of the exalted task then solemnly undertaken. Half a century is but a brief span in your long annals, yet this half century that ends today will stand amid the floods of your historic ages, a far-shining landmark. The Proclamation of the direct supremacy of the Crown sealed the unity of Indian Government and opened a new era. The journey was arduous, and the advance may have sometimes seemed slow; but the incorporation of many strangely diversified communities, and of some three hundred millions of the human race, under British guidance and control has proceeded steadfastly and without pause. We survey our labours of the past half century with clear gaze and good conscience.

2. Difficulties such as attend all human rule in every age and place, have risen up from day to day. They have been faced by the servants of the British Crown with toil and courage and patience, with deep counsel and a resolution that has never faltered nor shaken. If errors have occurred, the Agents of my Government have spared no pains and no self-sacrifice to correct them; if abuses have been proved, vigorous hands have laboured to apply a remedy.

3. No secret of empire can avert the scourge of drought and plague, but experienced administrators have done all that skill and devotion are capable of doing, to mitigate those dire calamities of nature. For a longer period than was ever known in your land before, you have escaped the dire calamities of war within your borders. Internal peace has been unbroken.

4. In the great Charter of 1858, Queen Victoria gave you noble assurance of her earnest desire to stimulate the peaceful industry of India, to promote works of public utility and improvement, and to administer the Government for the benefit of all resident therein. The schemes that have been diligently framed and executed for promoting your material convenience and advance—schemes unsurpassed in their magnitude and their boldness—bear witness before the world to the zeal with which that benignant promise has been fulfilled.

5. The rights and privileges of the Feudatory Princes and Ruling Chiefs have been respected, preserved, and guarded; and the loyalty of their allegiance has been unswerving. No man among my subjects has been favoured, molested, or disquieted, by reason of his religious belief or worship. All men have enjoyed protection of the law. The law itself has been administered without disrespect to creed or caste, or to usages and ideas rooted in your civilization, it has been simplified in form, and its machinery adjusted to the requirements of ancient communities slowly entering a new world.

6. The charge confided to my Government concerns the destinies of countless multitudes of men now and for ages to come; and it is a paramount duty to repress with a stern arm guilty conspiracies that have no just cause and no serious aim. These conspiracies I know to be abhorrent to the loyal and faithful character of the vast hosts of my Indian subjects, and I will not suffer them to turn me aside from my task of building up the fabric of security and order.

7. Unwilling that this historic anniversary should pass without some signal mark of royal clemency and grace, I have directed that, as was ordered on the memorable occasion of the Coronation Durbar in 1903, the sentences of persons, whom our Courts have duly punished for offences against the law, should be remitted, or in various degrees reduced; and it is my wish that such wrongdoers may remain mindful of this act of mercy, and may conduct themselves without offence henceforth.

8. Steps are being continuously taken towards obliterating distinctions of race as the test for access to posts of public authority and power. In this path I confidently expect and intend the progress henceforward to be steadfast and sure, as education spreads, experience ripens, and the lessons of responsibility are well learned by the keen intelligence and apt capabilities of India.

9. From the first, the principle of representative institutions began to be gradually introduced, and the time has come when, in the judgment of my Viceroy and Governor-General and others of my counsellors, that principle may be prudently extended. Important classes among you, representing ideas that have been fostered and encouraged by British rule, claim equality of citizenship, and greater share in legislation and government. The politic satisfaction of such a claim will strengthen, not impair, existing authority and power. Administration will be all the more efficient, if the officers who conduct it have greater opportunities of regular contact with those whom it affects, and with those who influence and reflect common opinion about it. I will not speak of the measures that are now being diligently framed for these objects. They will speedily be made known to you, and will, I am very confident, mark a notable stage in the beneficent progress of your affairs.

10. I recognise the valour and fidelity of my Indian troops, and at the New Year I have ordered that opportunity should be taken to show in substantial form this, my high appreciation, of their martial instincts, their splendid discipline, and their faithful readiness of service.

11. The welfare of India was one of the objects dearest to the heart of Queen Victoria. By me, ever since my visit in 1875, the interests of India, its Princes and peoples, have been watched with an affectionate solicitude that time cannot weaken. My dear son the Prince of Wales, and the Princess of Wales, returned from their sojourn among you with warm attachment to your land, and true and earnest interest in its well-being and content. These sincere feelings of active sympathy and hope for India on the part of my Royal House and line, only represent, and they do most truly represent, the deep and united will and purpose of the people of this Kingdom.

12. May Divine protection and favour strengthen the wisdom and mutual good-will that are needed for the achievement of a task as glorious as was ever committed to rulers and subjects in any State or Empire of recorded time.

Fort St. George, November 5, 1908.

The following Resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

TELEGRAPHS.

No. 2870—2905—92

Simla, the 28th October 1908.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry.

The Government of India have had under their consideration the question of the rates at which inland telegrams are at present transmitted in India. The existing system, which involves a triple classification of messages, is now of long standing, and it originated in conditions which have passed away. The Urgent class was originally devised for the benefit of persons for whom the Ordinary was not fast enough, and the Deferred class was a concession to those who could not afford the cost of an Ordinary telegram, while they were content with a rate of speed which exceeded that of a letter. At first, indeed, Deferred messages were delivered by post.

2. This triple classification is inconvenient and cumbrous, and it has now become obsolete. When three classes of messages have to be dealt with, the procedure in signal offices becomes complicated, extra work is caused and traffic is delayed. The leisurely methods, which once passed muster, can no longer be expected to satisfy the reasonable demands of the public, and, although the longest class of messages still bears the designation of Deferred, the Telegraph Department fully recognizes its responsibility to accelerate their disposal as much as possible. Meanwhile the Ordinary class has been dropping out of public favour. In 1903-04, the Ordinary private messages numbered 1,188,618 and constituted 21·44 per cent. of the total; in 1907-08 they numbered 1,639,202 and were only 10·40 per cent. of the total. At the same time the proportion of Urgent messages rose from 4·34 per cent. to 5·38 per cent. and the proportion of Deferred messages rose from 73·70 per cent. to 84·24 per cent.

3. It has for some time been obvious that a change could not long be postponed, but the matter has now become urgent. Strenuous efforts are being made to accelerate the service, and to get rid of every element in the system which causes delay. One result of the acceleration which is taking place is that every day more messages are tending to fall into the Deferred class, and unless some change is made, it may be expected that the Ordinary class will practically disappear before very long, while the Urgent class also will tend to decrease. This is a matter which Government cannot afford to ignore, for the financial results of the process must be most serious. Calculations which have recently been made have shown clearly that every four-anna telegram sent involves a heavy loss to the Department, and there is no hope that, even if the most rigorous economy is insisted on, this loss can ever be made good. As traffic grows, indeed, the loss must become heavier from year to year. In these circumstances, the matter is one which calls for very early consideration and decision.

4. Whatever new rates for inland messages may finally be prescribed, it is desirable that one feature of the existing system should be rectified. At present the charge for each word in excess of the unit number is double (in the Deferred class more than double) the charge for each word within the unit. The effect of this has been that there is a growing tendency to split up long messages into several short ones, and this practice is, it is understood, freely resorted to by commercial firms. Thus, for examples, if the message contains 64 words in the text and three in the address, the charge for it is as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Urgent	14	12	0
Ordinary	7	6	0
Deferred	3	13	0

But if it be split up into five Urgent or Ordinary, or nine Deferred, messages the charge for it is only—

	Rs.	A.	P.

But while the sender has saved his pocket, the Telegraph Department has had to signal four or eight extra addresses, and has had to repeat the official preamble four or eight times; five or nine messages have to be booked instead of one, and five or nine messages have to be separately enclosed in envelopes, addressed, and sent out for delivery. It is obvious how unprofitable this is to the Department. A system which discourages extra words in messages is indeed contrary to its true interests, for it is the long messages which are remunerative.

5. In great Britain there is only one class of telegram, and this no doubt is the ideal system which may possibly come into force in India at some future date. But the Government of India do not think that matters are yet ripe for so great a change, and they believe that the public value the privilege of being able to obtain priority on the wires by paying higher rates. They therefore consider that there should in future be two classes of messages:—

(a) An Ordinary class, which will include the bulk of the messages.

(b) An Express class, which will be used when it is desired to secure greater urgency.

6. In determining the rates which should be charged in each class several alternatives have been considered including recommendations made by the Telegraph Committee on the subject. The Government of India fully recognize that in a country like India telegrams must be made as cheap as possible, if they are to be placed within the reach of more than a fraction of the native community. The enormous expansion of traffic which has followed the introduction of the four-anna rate—Deferred messages have increased from 4,084,564 in 1903-04 to 8,329,339 in 1907-08—makes it certain that the four-anna telegram has been greatly appreciated and has been a real boon to the public. It is therefore with great reluctance that the Government of India have yielded to the conviction that the four-anna message must be abandoned. But the actual results of more than four years' working leave no room for doubt that the four-anna telegram fails to pay its way, and in the opinion of the most competent judges the loss must be heavy and increasing. In these circumstances it is felt that the general taxpayer cannot in justice be called on to pay a large subsidy each year for the maintenance of the telegraph system, especially when it is remembered that the senders of telegrams do not constitute more than three or four per cent. of the total population of India.

7. The Government of India propose that the unit number of words in the Ordinary class should be twelve, including the address, that the charge for a telegram of twelve words or less should be six annas, and that the charge for each additional word above the unit should be half an anna. If these rates are compared with the rates at present charged for Deferred messages it will be found that, while the charge for eleven words or less will be increased, the charge for twelve words will be the same as at present and the charge for thirteen words or more will be reduced. It is hoped that the reduction of the charge for long messages, accompanied by a decided acceleration in the service, will go far to compensate for the raising of the initial rate.

8. In the Express class, as in the Ordinary class, it is proposed that the unit number of words should be twelve including the address. The charge for twelve words or less will be one rupee, and the charge for each additional word above the unit will be two annas. If these rates are introduced, the charge for each word in excess of the unit will still be greater than the charge for each word within the unit, and the splitting up of telegrams will therefore still be possible. But the Government of India believe that the saving which senders will be able to effect by this practice will be so small, that it will not be resorted to to any great extent. They have considered carefully whether the initial charge might not be fixed at Rs. 1-8-0, but they think it is undesirable that the cost of an Express telegram should so greatly exceed the cost of an Ordinary telegram.

9. The Government of India, before deciding finally as to the changes in the rates, desire that the public, who will be affected by the change, should have an opportunity of expressing their opinion. The proposals enumerated in this Resolution will be finally considered after the end of November, and the Government of India will be glad to receive before that date any representation on the subject which Local Governments, public bodies, or private persons may desire to make.

Order.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, to all Chambers of Commerce and Trades Associations and to all Departments of the Government of India.

Ordered, also, that a copy be published in the Gazette of India.

5. സാമന്ത രാജാക്കന്മാർക്കും നാട്ടു വാഴികൾക്കും ഉള്ള അവകാശങ്ങളും പദവികളും ബഹുമാനിക്കപ്പെട്ടുകയും സംരക്ഷിക്കപ്പെട്ടുകയും പരിരക്ഷണം ചെയ്യപ്പെട്ടുകയും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്നു. അവരുടെ രാജശക്തി പിഴക്കാതെ ഇരുന്നുകൊണ്ടിരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്യുന്നു. എന്നെന്നേക്കുള്ള കാര്യങ്ങളിൽ യാതൊരുവനുടെയും മതവിശ്വാസാനിഷ്ഠയോ മതാരാധന രീതിയോ ആയതുമൂലമോ ഉപദ്രവമോ അസഹ്യമോ ഉണ്ടായിട്ടില്ല. സർവ്വജനങ്ങൾക്കും നിയമത്താൽ ഉണ്ടാകുന്നതായ രക്ഷ അനുഭവിച്ചുവരുന്നു. ' നിയമവും മര്യാദയുമെന്നതൊഴികെ ജാതിയോ ആകട്ടെ നിങ്ങളുടെ രാജശിക്ഷാപത്രിയിൽ വേരുന്നി നില്ക്കുന്നതായ ആധാരത്തിന്നും അതിപ്രായത്തിന്നും ആകട്ടെ ഞനാദരവുള്ളതാതെ കണ്ടു നടത്തപ്പെട്ടിരിക്കുന്നു. പുരാതന ജനസമുദായങ്ങൾ തങ്ങളുടെ നൂതന ലോകത്തിൽ പണ്ടുള്ള പ്രവേശനത്തിനു വേണ്ടുന്ന ആവശ്യങ്ങൾക്കു വേണ്ടി നിയമം ആകുന്നിയിൽ ശിഥിലീകരിക്കുകയും നിയമാനുസൃതമാർഗ്ഗങ്ങൾ ആ ആവശ്യത്തിലേക്കു ശരിപ്പെടുത്തുകയും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്നു.

6. എന്റെ ശവസംസ്കാരത്തിനു വിശ്വാസപൂർവ്വം എഴുതിച്ചിട്ടുള്ളതായ ചുമതല ഇപ്പോഴുള്ള വർഷം ഇനി അനേകം കാലങ്ങളോളം വരാനുള്ളതിനു യാതൊരു സംശയവും തോന്നാതിരിക്കുന്നതിനു സംബന്ധിച്ചിട്ടുള്ളതാകുന്നു. ന്യായമായ ഹേതുവും ഗൌരവമുള്ളതായ ഉദ്ദേശവും ഇല്ലാതെ കണ്ടുള്ളതായ രാജദ്രോഹകൃത്യാലോചനകൾ കാരുണ്യരഹിതമായ ബലത്തോടുകൂടി അടക്കുന്നതുമുള്ളതായ കർത്തവ്യകർമ്മമാകുന്നു. ഈ രാജദ്രോഹകൃത്യാലോചനകൾ എന്റെ ഇന്ത്യൻ പ്രജകളിൽ അപരിമിതമായ ഭാഗ്യത്തിന്റെ രാജശക്തിയോടു വിശ്വസ്തതയോടും ക്ഷീയതായ സ്വഭാവത്തിനു വൈപരീത്യമുള്ളതാണെന്നു ഞാൻ അറിയുന്നു. എന്നാലതുമല്ല, നിശ്ചയപൂർവ്വം വ്യവസ്ഥയും ആയ കോട്ട നിർമ്മാണം ചെയ്യുന്നതിനായ എന്റെ പ്രവൃത്തിയിൽ എനിക്കു ഉടനെ വന്നുചേരുവാനായിട്ട് ഞാൻ ഈവരെ സമ്മതിക്കുന്നതുമല്ല.

7. ചരിത്രസംബന്ധമായ ഈ വാങ്കിംഗോസവം രാജകീയ ഭയത്തിന്റെയും കാരുണ്യത്തിന്റെയും വ്യക്തതയായ ചില ലക്ഷ്യംകൂടാതെ കഴിഞ്ഞുപോകുന്നതിനു ഇങ്ങിനിപ്പിന്നത്തേക്കായി നിയമവിധിയുള്ളതായ കാര്യങ്ങൾക്കു നടപ്പാക്കുന്നതിനു കോടതികൾക്കു ഭരിയാധികാരിച്ചിട്ടുള്ള ആളുകളുടെ ശിക്ഷകൾ 1903 ൽ കൂടാതിരിക്കുമ്പോൾ ഉണ്ടായ സന്ദർഭനീയമായ അവസരത്തിൽ കല്പിച്ചുപ്രകാരം വിട്ടുകൊടുക്കുകയോ പല നോട്ടങ്ങളിലും ചുരുക്കുകയോ ചെയ്യണമെന്നു ഞാൻ കല്പിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു. കൃപാപൂർണ്ണരായ ഈ പ്രവൃത്തി ആയുക കുറഞ്ഞാൽ സൂചിപ്പിക്കുന്നതിനുമെന്നും മേലാൽ കുറവു ചെയ്യാതെ കണ്ടു നടക്കുമെന്നും ഞാൻ ഇച്ഛിക്കുന്നു.

8. അധികാരവും ശക്തിയും ഉള്ള സർക്കാരുദ്യോഗങ്ങളിൽ നിയമിക്കുന്നതിനു ജാതി വ്യത്യാസം യോഗ്യതയുള്ളതാണെന്നു ഇല്ലാതെ കണ്ടറിയുന്നതിനു വേണ്ടുന്ന എപ്പോഴും അന്വേഷണം ചെയ്തിരിക്കുമെന്നു ഞാൻ വിശ്വസിക്കുന്നു. വിദ്യാഭ്യാസം വ്യാപിക്കുകയും പരിചയം പരിപക്വമാകുകയും ഇന്ത്യക്കാരുടെ കഴിവുകുറുമ്പിയാലും ഉചിതമായ സാമർത്ഥ്യവും ഉത്തരവാദിത്വപാടം ദൃഢമാകുമാറുള്ള ശ്രദ്ധിക്കയും ചെയ്തുകൊണ്ടിരിക്കുന്നതു മാർഗ്ഗത്തിനു ഉള്ളതായ അഭിവൃദ്ധി മേലാൽ സ്ഥിരമായും നിശ്ചയമായും ഇരിക്കുമെന്നു ഞാൻ വിശ്വാസപൂർവ്വം പ്രതീക്ഷിക്കുകയും ഇച്ഛിക്കുകയും ചെയ്യുന്നു.

9. ആയും ഉത്തൽക്ക പ്രതിനിധി വ്യവസ്ഥാസമ്പ്രദായത്തെ സംബന്ധിച്ചിട്ടുള്ള പ്രഖ്യാപനം ഞാൻ ഏപ്പോഴേക്കുമെന്നിരുന്നായിട്ട് ഇങ്ങിനെ ആ പ്രമാണം എന്റെ പ്രതിനിധിയായ ഗവർണർ ജനറലുടെയും എന്റെ മന്ത്രിമാരിൽ മറ്റുള്ളവരുടെയും നിന്നയ പ്രകാരം വിവേകപൂർവ്വം വ്യാപിപ്പിച്ചുകൊണ്ടുവരുന്നതായ കാലം എത്തിയിരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്നു. സ്ത്രീകൾ ഭരണംകൊണ്ടു പോകിപ്പിക്കപ്പെടുകയും പ്രോത്സാഹിപ്പിക്കപ്പെടുകയും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്നതായ കാര്യപ്രായങ്ങൾ ഉള്ളവരായ നിരക്കുടെ ഇടയിലുള്ള വഴ്ത്തുദാനം പൌരാവകാശ സമത്വവും നിയമനിർമ്മാണത്തിലും രാജ്യഭരണത്തിലും ഇപ്പോഴുള്ളതിലും അധികമായ ഓഹരിയും അവകാശപ്പെടുന്നു. ആയുക അവകാശം രാഷ്ട്രീയസ്വതന്ത്രയായി തുല്യപ്പെടുത്തുന്നതു ഇപ്പോൾ ഉള്ള അധികാരവും ശക്തിയും ബലപ്പെടുത്തുകയല്ലാതെ ക്ഷയിപ്പിക്കുന്നതല്ല. രാജ്യഭാരം ചെയ്യുന്ന ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാർക്കു രാജ്യാധാരത്തിനു കീഴിലുള്ളവരോടും രാജ്യാധാരത്തെ സംബന്ധിച്ചു പൊതുവിലുള്ള അഭിപ്രായം ഉണ്ടാക്കിത്തീർക്കയും ഒപ്പിപ്പെടുത്തുകയും ചെയ്യുന്നവരോടും ക്രമമായി സഹവാസം ചെയ്വാൻ ഇപ്പോൾ ഉള്ളതിലും എറെ സൌകര്യം ഉണ്ടാകുന്നപക്ഷം രാജ്യഭരണം ഇപ്പോഴുള്ളതിലും വളരെ പല പ്രകാരമായിത്തീരുന്നതാകുന്നു. ഈ ആധ്യവർഷം ഉത്സാഹത്തോടുകൂടി ഇപ്പോൾ നിവിച്ചുകൊണ്ടിരിക്കുന്നതായ എപ്പോഴുള്ളപ്രവൃത്തി ഞാൻ പ്രസ്താവിക്കുന്നില്ല. അവ കാലമാസം കൂടാതെ നിങ്ങളെ അറിയിക്കുന്നതും നിങ്ങളുടെ കാഴ്ചയുടെ പ്രയോഗകരമായ അഭിവൃദ്ധി മാർഗ്ഗത്തിൽ സന്തോഷമായ ഒരു ചലനം കാണിക്കുന്നതും ആകുന്നു.

10. ഇന്ത്യക്കാരായ എന്റെ പടയാളികളുടെ ശൌര്യവും വിശ്വസ്തതയും ഞാൻ അറിയുന്നു. യുദ്ധത്തിനുള്ള അവരുടെ വാസനാബലവും ഉൽകൃഷ്ടമായ അവരുടെ ശിക്ഷാ

ബലവും സേവകത്തിന്റെ വിശ്വസ്തതയോടുകൂടിയ അവരുടെ ഒരുമയും സംബന്ധിച്ചു എനിക്കുള്ള ദൃഢം വലുതായ ബഹുമാനം സ്വാഭാവമായ പ്രകൃതത്തിൽ കാണിക്കുന്നതിനുള്ള അനുകൂലത്തിനും വന്ന അനുപിറപ്പിൽ സംശീകരിക്കുന്നതിനും ഞാൻ കല്പിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.

11. ഇന്ത്യയുടെ യോഗക്ഷേമം ചിരകാലമായ മഹാരാജ്ഞിയുടെ ഹൃദയത്തിനു അതി പ്രധാനമായുള്ള വിഷയങ്ങളിൽ ഒന്നായിരുന്നു. 1875 ൽ ഞാൻ ഇന്ത്യയെ സന്ദർശിച്ചകാലം മുതൽ ഇന്ത്യയുടെയും അതിലെ കാലാകാന്തരങ്ങളുടെയും നന്മകളുടെയും ക്ഷേമം കാലക്രമത്താൽ ക്ഷയിച്ചുപോവാൻ പാടില്ലാത്ത കണ്ടുള്ളതായി ശ്രദ്ധപൂർവ്വമായ ഒരു ചിന്തയോടുകൂടി ഞാൻ രക്ഷിച്ചുപോന്നതൊഴിഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്നു. എന്നെ വാത്സല്യമുള്ള മകനായ വെയിൽസ് രാജകുമാരനും രാജകുമാരിയും നിങ്ങളോടുകൂടിയുള്ള അല്പകാലവാസത്തിന്റെ ശേഷം നിങ്ങളുടെ രാജ്ഞിയോടുള്ള പ്രതിബന്ധത്തോടും അതിന്റെ ക്ഷേമത്തിലും സന്തുഷ്ടിയിലും ഖാന്തവമായും ഹൃദയപൂർവ്വമായും ഉള്ള അനുഭാവത്തോടുകൂടിയുമാണു തിരിച്ചുപോന്നതു. എന്നെ രാജത്വപദത്തിലും ഭരണത്തിലും ഇന്ത്യയുടെ നേരെ നിഷ്പക്ഷമായി കർത്തവ്യകർമ്മമായ അനുകമ്പയും ആശംസയും എന്റെ ഭരണത്തിലെ ആദ്യകാലത്തെ അഗ്രാഹമായും ഐകമത്യമായും ഉള്ള നേസ്സും നൽപ്പെയ്ത്തും കേവലമായി പ്രദർശിപ്പിക്കുക മാത്രമല്ല അവ അനുനിത്യവാസ്തവമായി പ്രകാശിപ്പിക്കുകയും ചെയ്തുന്നു.

Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue),
Chepauk, 26th October 1908.

I. Under section 138 of the Sea Customs Act the Chief Customs authority has ordered that port-clearance granted to coasting vessels other than native craft shall be in the same form as that prescribed under section 63 of the Act—vide Form A in appendix.

II. With the approval of Government the following rules have been framed by the Chief Customs authority under sections 138—142 of the Sea Customs Act, for regulating the coasting trade carried on in native craft, i.e., vessels other than square rigged or propelled by steam :—

(i) The export general manifest shall be in the same form as that prescribed for other vessels under sections 63 and 138 of the Act—vide Form B in appendix—and should be printed on ruled paper of a quality approved by the Collector. It shall contain besides the particulars therein required the following information :—

(a) In the case of a vessel to which cargo from another customs port has been transhipped from another native craft, a note should be made opposite each item of transhipment cargo to the following effect: "originally manifested at the port of . . . . . for transhipment to the port of . . . . ." or "subsequently manifested at . . . . for transhipment to . . . . " according as the goods were originally manifested at the port of export for transhipment at the port in question or their destination was changed on arrival there.

(b) It shall also include all goods brought from another port and not landed or transhipped and also all arms and ammunition on board.

(ii) If the vessel has arrived originally from another port, the manifest, prepared as above, shall be presented in duplicate along with the documents on which the cargo has been discharged, endorsed by the officer who supervised the landing to the effect that all the cargo manifested for the purpose has been discharged and inward clearance obtained.

(iii) Both the copies will then be presented to the Customs Collector together with the original transhipment permits for goods for which transhipment permits have been granted and all shipping bills with endorsements showing the quantity of goods actually shipped. The master shall also produce the following documents :—

(a) the clearance certificate from the Port Office;
(b) vessel's register;
(c) port and light dues receipts, if any;
(d) certificate that the vessel is furnished with side lights; and
(e) health certificate in the case of vessels arriving from infected places.

(iv) If any of the goods for which shipping bills or transhipment permits have been granted are not shipped, the master shall, at the same time, put in a certificate in the form of an endorsement on the reverse of the shipping bills or the duplicate transhipment permits to the effect that the goods have not been shipped or transhipped as the case may be.

(v) One copy of the manifest will be returned signed by the Customs Collector together with the shipping bills and transhipment permits and it shall be the port-clearance for the vessel.

(vi) In the case of the native craft clearing in ballast for a custom-port, port-clearance will be granted in Form C in appendix. The form shall be filled in in counterfoil by the master or agent and after inward clearance has been obtained in the manner above described, it shall be presented to the Customs Collector who will sign the original and return it to the master as his clearance.

(vii) In the case of native craft entering and leaving a port in ballast it shall be entered and cleared like other vessels, and shall take a port-clearance in the same form as in the case of a vessel entering with cargo and clearing in ballast.

(viii) Within 24 hours of the arrival of any native craft at any customs port the master must obtain a certificate of entry from the Port Office and present it at the Custom-house along with the following documents :—

(a) the port-clearance from the last port of call;
(b) extract from manifest and shipping bills for all cargo to be discharged at the port;
(c) a list of the vessel's stores;
(d) if the port be an intermediate one, the original manifest of which the above is only an extract;
(e) port and light dues receipts, if any; and
(f) an application to enter the vessel inwards if the vessel has touched at a foreign port or has dutiable goods on board.

(ix) After the vessel has been entered the export general manifest will be signed by the Customs Collector or by the officer who entered the vessel and returned to the master and will be his authority to break bulk, except in the case of free goods intended for transhipment which shall not be discharged until a transhipment permit has been prepared and completed by the owner and presented along with the document on which the import cargo is to be discharged to the officer deputed to supervise the transhipment.

(n) If free goods originally manifested for importation are subsequently required to be transhipped for another port, the export general manifest shall be presented to the Customs Collector for amendment before a permit is granted.

III. If any goods are landed from a coasting vessel which has touched at a foreign port or has goods brought from a foreign port on board without being previously entered in the manifest, a fine under article 33, section 167, Act VIII of 1878, will be enforced and a note of the fact of such landing endorsed by the Customs officer on the manifest.

IV. The Chief Customs authority is pleased to direct that all coasting vessels which are square-rigged or propelled by steam shall maintain a cargo book in the same form as that prescribed for general pass vessels.

V. Under section 182 (2) of the Sea Customs Act (VIII of 1878), the Board of Revenue, as the Chief Customs authority, resolves to order that the articles expressed in the list annexed to this rule, whether dutiable or free, shall not be landed at the port of Madras, unless a special permit to land has been previously obtained from the officer in charge of the custom house, and they shall be carried to such place as may be appointed by him. At the out-ports a special permit previously obtained may be dispensed with, but a special notice that such articles (to be expressed in detail) are on board, destined for the port, shall be delivered by the commander or agent to the officer in charge of the Custom-house as soon as possible after the arrival of the vessel; and such goods shall be landed and kept, until duly passed only at such place or places as may be appointed for that purpose by the officer in charge of the Custom-house. Breach of this rule will entail detention, fine or confiscation of the articles.

List of articles.—Ammunition, chemicals, earth-oil or mineral naptha, fireworks, fulminating powder, gun cotton, gun-powder, kerosine-oil, lucifer matches (congreve) nitro-glycerine, phosphorus, pitch, sulphuric acid, tar, turpentine and other dangerous substances.

(Notification, dated 7th February 1902, printed at page 263, Part II of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 18th February 1902.)

VI. Under section 144 of the Sea Customs Act the Chief Customs authority has prescribed the following rules to carry out the provisions of Chapter XV of the Act, in their application to vessels sailing under a general pass. The rules include also those approved by the Government of India for the ports of other provinces.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 8 A.M., 10 P.M., 4 P.M. and 8 P.M., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The cistern of the Barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the Rain Gauge is two feet from the ground. The wind, rain, and general weather registered are for the current Civil Day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since January 1st is 49·66 inches, the average due for the same period being 21·35 inches.

There were forty calm hours during the month. The resultant corresponding to the above numbers is represented by a E by N wind, blowing with a uniform daily velocity of 29 miles.

South-west monsoon pressure conditions obtained over the Presidency and the Bay at the beginning of the month and north westerly winds set in over the Deccan during the first week. There were as usual followed by local showers over the greater part of the Presidency though no rain was received at Madras Inland in the Carnatic, however, showers were frequent and occasionally heavy: Trichinopoly received 3 inches on the 8th At this more a storm formed in the north of the Bay, which moved off in a northerly or north easterly direction. Pressure became very uniform over the Peninsula after this, while in the east of the Bay there was a moderate gradient. On the 14th pressure was lowest in Borneah and the Andaman Sea and this continued till the 20th when it became low over the south of the Bay. By the morning of the 21st the area of lowest pressure had been transferred to the south-west of the Bay and winds became easterly at the Bay Islands. During the next 24 hours the north-east monsoon set in on the Madras Coast and over the south of the Presidency and continued without interruption till the end of the month The depression partially concentrated into a definite cyclonic storm on the 24th, and some very heavy rain fell during this period The total amount received at Madras was nearly 25 inches The commencement of the north-east monsoon was accompanied by some very severe thunderstorms and thunderstorms occurred on most days from the 21st to the end of the month—on nine days altogether Distant thunderstorms occurred on one other day and distant lightning was recorded on six other days.

"41. The provisions of this Act shall apply to ships propelled by electricity or other mechanical power, with such modifications as the Governor General in Council may prescribe for the purpose of adaptation."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to make provision for the survey, and for the grant of certificates to engineers, of vessels propelled by agencies other than steam, to put British and foreign ships on a footing of equality in the matter of the carriage of passengers and the holding of certificates of survey under the Indian Steamships Act, 1884, to bring vessels partially surveyed in British ports into substantially the same position as those similarly surveyed in foreign ports, and to facilitate the exercise of the powers conferred by that Act in respect of the grant of certificates of survey to ships surveyed in foreign ports.

Clauses 2 and 5, following section 723 of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, extend to vessels propelled by electricity or other mechanical power the provisions of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1886, and the Indian Steamships Act, 1884, which at present apply only to vessels propelled by steam.

Clause 3 places British and foreign steamers on the same footing in respect of the certificates of survey required when carrying more than twelve passengers. This amendment of the law is in accordance with the provisions of section 14 of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1906.

Clause 4 re-enacts and makes important additions to section 23 of the Indian Steamships Act, 1884, which at present is limited to empowering Local Governments to accept certain certificates of survey granted after official survey in foreign ports.

The new sub-section (2) proposed by this clause adds a provision enabling Local Governments to delegate their powers under the section to specially appointed officers in the case of ships holding certificates of survey granted at foreign ports regarding which they have by notification declared that they are satisfied that official surveys at such ports are such as to prove that the requirements of the Act have been sufficiently complied with.

Though the powers conferred by section 23 of the Act in respect of certificates granted at foreign ports cover certificates of partial survey and docking certificates granted at such ports, there is no power under the Act to accept such certificates when granted by the Board of Trade or any British Colonial Government. The new sub-section (3) which is further proposed by this clause abolishes this inequality between vessels partially surveyed in British ports and those similarly surveyed in foreign ports by declaring that the procedure prescribed by section 23 of the Act for the latter vessels is applicable to the former vessels also.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 30th October 1908:

No. 14 of 1908.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1880.

VII of 1880. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1880; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Merchant Shipping (Amendment) Act, 190 ; and

(2) Section 4 shall come into force on such date or dates as the Governor General in Council may by notification in the Gazette of India direct either generally for all foreign ships or specially for the ships belonging to any specified foreign countries. The rest of this Act shall come into force on the first day of January 1909.

VII of 1880. Amendment of section 3, Act VII, 1880. 2. (1) In section 3, clause (b), of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1880, after the word "or" the words "to any sailing ship of less than one hundred and fifty tons register employed" shall be inserted.

(2) To the same section the following shall be added, namely:—

"The Governor General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, exclude from or bring again within the operation of sections 33 to 43, inclusive, any class of steamships of less than one hundred and fifty tons register which are employed solely in plying coastwise between ports situate in India and Ceylon, and do not carry cargo."

Amendment of section 4 of same Act. 3. In section 4 of the said Act, in the definition of "unsafe", after the word "intended" the following words shall be inserted, namely:— [57 & 58 Vict., c. 60, s. 438.]

"and a ship shall be deemed to be unsafe when so loaded as to submerge in smooth salt water the centre of the disc indicating the load line."

Substitution of new section 85 of same Act. 4. For section 85 of the said Act the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"85. The provisions of this Act for the prevention of the overloading and improper loading of British ships and for the marking of deck and load lines on British Indian and British ships shall, with the exception of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 33, apply to foreign ships also when in ports of British India, unless such foreign ships, if to ports of the United Kingdom, would be entitled to the benefit of a direction of His Majesty in Council under section 445 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894:

Application of provisions respecting overloading and deck and load lines to foreign ships

57 & 58 Vict., c. 60. (8 Edw. 7, c. 48, s. 4.)

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any foreign ship not bound to a port in British India which comes into any port in British India for any purpose other than the purpose of embarking or landing passengers or taking in or discharging cargo or taking in bunker coal.

Provided also that in the case of the detention of a foreign ship the application of the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the following modifications, namely:— [57 & 58 Vict., c. 60, s. 442.]

(i) a copy of the order for the provisional detention of the ship shall be forthwith served on the consular officer for the country to which the ship belongs at or nearest to the port in which such ship is detained;

(ii) the consular officer, on the request of the owner or master of the ship, may require that the person appointed by the Local Government under section 3 to survey the ship shall be accompanied by such person as the consular officer may select, and in that case, if the surveyor and that person agree the Local Government may act as if the requisition had not been made, and the owner and master shall have the like appeal to a Court of Survey touching the report of the surveyor as is hereinbefore provided in the case of a British ship; and

(iii) where the owner or master of the ship appeals to the Court of Survey, the consular officer, on his request, may appoint a competent person to be assessor in the case in lieu of the assessor who, if the ship were a British ship, would be appointed otherwise than by the Local Government."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Bill proposes certain amendments in the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1880.

Clause 2 withdraws the exemption from the provisions of Chapter II of the Act which is at present enjoyed by steamships of less than 150 tons register employed in plying coastwise between ports situate in India and Ceylon, but power is at the same time reserved to exempt from the deck and load line provisions in the Act any class of such steamships which do not carry cargo. The object of this amendment is to bring the Indian law into line with that relating to existing vessels of less than 80 tons register as recently enacted in the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, section 7.

Clause 3, following section 439 of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, provides that the submersion of her disc shall be deemed to render a ship unsafe within the meaning of the Indian Act, and consequently liable to detention

Clause 4 is the most important clause in the Bill. Following section 1 of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, it widens the scope of section 65 of the Indian Act, which at present only applies the provisions of that Act as to overloading to foreign ships, by making it also apply the provisions of that Act as to deck and load lines in such ships, except when they come into port under stress of weather, when they are exempted, as in the case of similar ships in the United Kingdom under section 6 of the Imperial Act. It further applies the procedure prescribed by section 425 of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, for the detention of foreign ships to cases in which such ships are detained under the Indian Act.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 30th October 1908:

No. 15 of 1908

A Bill to give legal sanction to a marriage ceremony common among the Sikhs called Anand.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give legal sanction to a marriage ceremony common among the Sikhs called Anand; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Anand Marriage Act, 1908;

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Validity of marriages solemnized according to the Anand ceremony.

2. All marriages and re-marriages duly solemnized according to the Sikh marriage ceremony called Anand shall be considered good and valid.

Saving of certain marriages.

3. Nothing in this Act shall apply to—

(a) any marriage which has been judicially declared to be null and void; or

(b) any marriage which may be contracted by such persons as are related to each other in any of the degrees of consanguinity or affinity prohibited among the Sikhs.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of the Bill is to set at rest doubts which may be raised as to the validity of the marriage rite of the Sikhs called "Anand".

This form of marriage has long been practised among the Sikhs, but there are good reasons to believe that, in the absence of a validating enactment, doubts may be thrown upon it, and Sikhs may have to face great difficulties in the future, and incur heavy expenses on suits instituted in the Civil Courts. It is also apprehended that, in the absence of such a law, some judicial officers may be uncertain as to the validity of this orthodox Sikh custom.

It is desirable therefore that all doubts should be set at rest for the future, by passing this enactment, which merely validates an existing rite and involves no new principles.

INDIAN STEAMSHIPS LAW AMENDMENT BILL

The Hon'ble Mr. HARVEY moved for leave to introduce a Bill further to amend the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1884, and the Indian Steamships Act, 1884. He said:—"My Lord, the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1884 (VI of 1884), and the Indian Steamships Act, 1884 (VII of 1884), as present do not apply to vessels propelled by electricity or other mechanical power. In this Bill power is being taken, by clauses 2 and 3, to apply the provisions of these Acts to motor-craft, the number of which is annually increasing.

"Clause 3 of the Bill is intended to remove the inequality which at present exists between British and foreign steam-ships, carrying more than 12 passengers between places in British India and places outside British India. Foreign ships have not hitherto been required to possess a certificate of survey under Act VII of 1884, while such a certificate is required in the case of British ships. The same procedure will now apply to both classes of vessels.

"Clause 4 of the Bill amends section 23 of Act VII of 1884. Under the law as it now stands, a foreign certificate of survey attested by a British Consular Officer at a foreign port may be accepted by the Local Government, which can then issue a certificate having the same effect as a certificate given after survey under the Indian Act. Inconvenience has been caused, particularly in the case of Aden, by the power to issue such a certificate being confined to the Local Government. In sub-section (2) of section 23 as amended, provision is made for the delegation of this power by Local Governments, when they are satisfied that the survey at a particular foreign port sufficiently meets the requirements of the Indian Act. Sub-section (3) of the same section provides for the acceptance of certificates of partial survey and docking certificates granted by the Board of Trade or any British Colonial Government. Under the law at present, although such certificates can be accepted when granted at foreign ports, they cannot be accepted when granted at British or Colonial ports. The amendment now proposed removes an inequality to which objection has been taken in practice, and puts British and Colonial certificates of partial survey and docking certificates on the same footing as certificates granted at foreign ports."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English, and in the Fort St. George Gazette, the Bombay Government Gazette, the Calcutta Gazette, the Burma Gazette, and the Eastern Bengal and Assam Gazette in English and in such other languages as the Local Governments think fit.

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN MERCHANT SHIPPING (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY moved for leave to introduce a Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1859. He said:—"My Lord, when the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act of 1906 was passed, the Secretary of State for India asked the Government of India to consider the advisability of legislating so as to bring the provisions of the Indian Merchant Shipping Law into line with those of the new Imperial Statute. He particularly requested that legislation should be undertaken to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act (VII of 1880, as amended by Act XVII of 1891) by adapting it to the provisions of Part I of the Statute of 1906, dealing with the safety of vessels.

"The amendment contemplated by clause 2 of the Bill is based on section 7 of the Imperial Act. Hitherto no Indian coasting steamers of less than 150 tons register have been exempt from the provisions of the Act relating to unseaworthy and unsafe ships. It is now proposed to withdraw this exemption, but power has been reserved to the Governor General in Council to extend to such vessels, if they do not carry cargo, exemption from the special provisions of the Act relating to deck and load lines.

"Difficulty has been experienced in the past from the want of specific provision in the Indian law to the effect that the submersion of a ship's disc should be deemed to render a ship 'unsafe' within the meaning of Act VII of 1884, and consequently liable to detention. This point has been provided for in unmistakable language in clause 3 of the draft Bill.

"Clause 4 of the Bill amplifies the scope of section 25 of Act VII of 1880, which at present applies to foreign ships the provisions of that Act in respect of overloading and improper loading only. The provisions relating to deck and load lines will now also extend to such ships when in British Indian ports and they will thus be subject to the same conditions as British ships. But foreign ships coming into port under stress of weather will be exempted from the operation of this clause. In consequence of the possible detention of foreign ships for non-compliance with the requirements of the law, provision has been made for enabling consular officers to safeguard the interests of vessels of their respective nationalities."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English and in the Fort St. George Gazette, the Bombay Government Gazette, the Calcutta Gazette, the Burma Gazette and the Eastern Bengal and Assam Gazette in English and in such other languages as the Local Governments think fit.

The motion was put and agreed to.

ANAND MARRIAGE BILL.

The Hon'ble TIKKA SAHIB RIPUDAMAN SINGH OF NABHA moved for leave to introduce a Bill to give legal sanction to a marriage ceremony common among the Sikhs called Anand. He said:—"My Lord, the Statement of Objects and Reasons fully explains the object and scope of the Bill, so I need not trouble Your Excellency and my Hon'ble Colleagues with any further remarks."

The Hon'ble SIR HARVEY ADAMSON said:—"My Lord, the attitude of Government towards this Bill is at present one of neutrality. We will vote for the motions that are being made to-day, that is to say, we give the Bill a first reading, but the question of our final support must depend on the opinions which after publication are elicited from the Sikh community, whose interests it affects. I may add that the Government of India are always ready to give sympathetic consideration to any measure which professes to aim at promoting the interests of the Sikhs, whose bravery has won the admiration of the world, and whose loyalty to the British Crown has ever been steadfast."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble TIKKA SAHIB RIPUDAMAN SINGH OF NABHA introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble TIKKA SAHIB RIPUDAMAN SINGH OF NABHA moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English, and in the local official Gazettes in English and in such other languages as the Local Governments think fit.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned sine die.
